"Built to Bake"

HOUSEHOLD ROYAL

THE HOUSEHOLD ROYAL meets the wants of those who desire a perfectly PLAIN RANGE for the kitchen. The castings are very rich, of that velvety smoothness which delights the housewife who desires the ebony finish, making a handsome addition to the "BUILT TO BAKE" line of Household ranges.

Household Ranges

The Household Royal demonstrates more clearly than any other range the superiority and perfection of Household castings.

To make perfectly plain castings that take a rich lustrous polish requires the highest skill of expert moulders and the purest and strongest iron. Since the Household Foundry has always employed high grade men and the best of materials it was easy to produce this new pattern which for gracefulness of design and perfection of finish excels any so-called plain range on the market.

The Royal has all the well known and distinctive Household features.

Household Ranges

"Built to Bake" large roomy oven.

Extra large fire box.

"Never stick" dampers.

Convenient clean out.

Large ash pit.

Interchangeable grates.

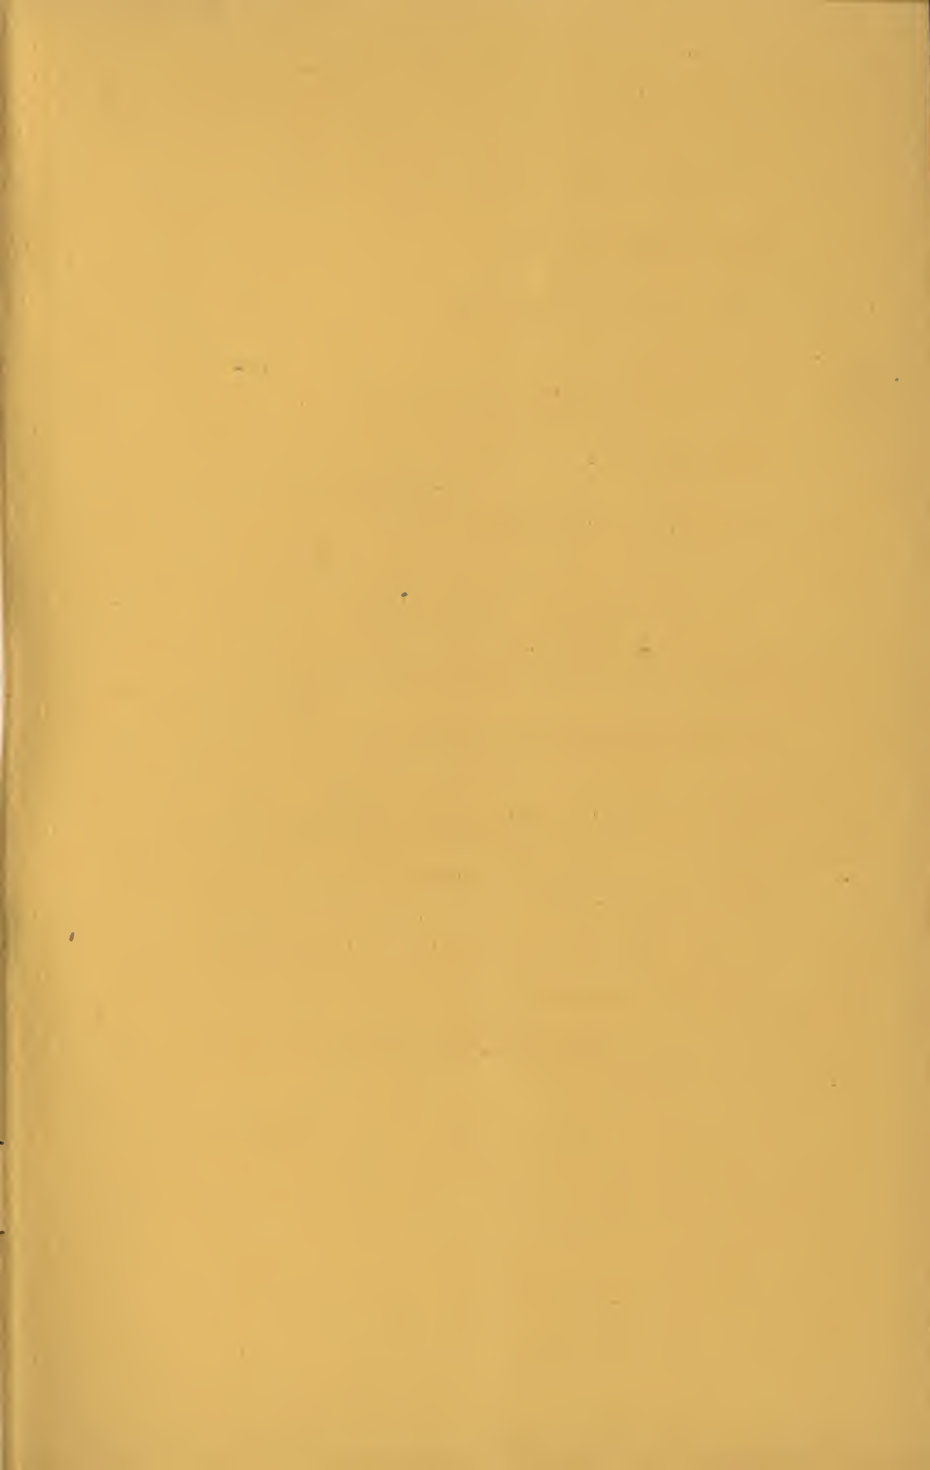

Removable nickel edges.

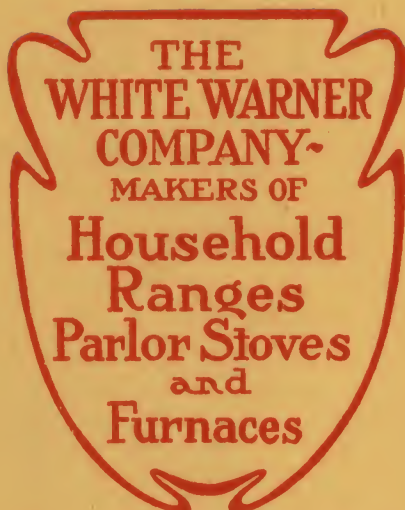

Pedal oven door opener.

Accurate oven indicator.

Original flue construction, heating all sides of the oven evenly and making a large saving in fuel.

If you prefer a plain range without carving or extra nickel ornamentation we shall be pleased to have you carefully examine the Household Royal.

features will be found in The Home and this means every real improvement in modern range construction.

Attention is called to the new oven indicator which can be depended on for all baking, and insures success for inexperienced cooks.

“Built to Bake”

As in all Household Ranges, The Home has removable nickle edges, large roomy oven, extra large fire box. When used with a water front the fire box is larger than the original fire box. You know what that means? A
